
Spiegelhalter's multi-million dollar research projects have been supported by large grants from the German Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology, Saxen Ministry of State, Intelligent Energy Europe, U.S. Department of Energy, Envi-ronmental Protection Agency, National Science Foundation, the National Renewable Energy Laboratory, Department of State Energy and Climate Partnership of The Americas, and others. As a result of his 57 years of design/built work, professional consulting, awarded research, teaching, Spiegelhalter has received 54 prizes, awards, and honors in European and US sustainability competitions individual and in collaboration with landscape architects, and engineers.