Welcome to The Herbert and Nicole Wertheim Performing Arts Center

Located on FIU's Modesto A. Maidique Campus across from the Patricia & Philip Frost Art Museum, the Herbert and Nicole Wertheim Performing Arts Center is one of Miami's premier collegiate concert and theatrical venues. The performing arts center houses both the FIU School of Music and the FIU Department of Theatre and features a concert hall, recital hall, instrumental hall, mainstage theatre, and black box theatre. The performing arts center is available for outside events and offers a variety of well-equipped spaces for concerts and theatrical productions.

SUPPORT THE ARTS AT FIU

The FIU School of Music and FIU Department of Theatre present over 180 performances, master classes, productions, and educational events each year, many of which are offered to the public at no charge. Each ticket purchase and donation supports student scholarships, performance facilities, and educational initiatives and programs available to our community.

Discounts are available for large groups, FIU faculty, staff, students (with i.d.), and alumni. We are proud to support arts initiatives within Miami-Dade County by offering $5 student tickets to many of our shows.

To take advantage of dining rewards, join our email list, and to learn more about programming, visit us today at wpac.fiu.edu.

We invite you to live the arts with us!
