September 16, 2020	Evidence for Action: Innovative Research to Advance Racial Equity	Robert Wood Johnson Foundation	Evidence for Action (EFA), a national program of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, funds research that expands the evidence needed to build a Culture of Health, with an explicit emphasis on advancing racial equity. We recognize that achieving racial equity is not possible without a focus on the foundational and structural drivers of health, often referred to as the social determinants of health (e.g., housing, education, built environment, economic opportunity, law enforcement, and others). Therefore, we partner with researchers, practitioners, community leaders, advocates, and policymakers to develop evidence about what works to dismantle and remedy unjust systems and practices and produce more equitable outcomes for people and communities of color.
