

Music Composition Workshop in Assisi, Italy

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This summer study abroad program will give music composition students the opportunity to receive an overview of contemporary sacred art music and compose a new work with the guidance of, FIU head of composition and composer in residence, Dr. Orlando Jacinto Garcia. In addition, the work they create will be rehearsed and an archival recording will be provided by the Suono Sacro Ensemble in residence at the Suono Sacro International Music Festival in Assisi, Italy. A number of student works to be selected by the ensemble in conjunction with Dr. Garcia will be presented at the closing concert of the Festival.

Composition students at the advanced undergraduate level or the graduate level are invited to apply. The language for the course will be English and no knowledge of Italian is required. A limit of 12 students will be accepted into the workshop.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

The program will be held in the city of Assisi, Italy home of the Suono Sacro Festival. Facilities for rehearsals, lectures and master classes will take place in the city at selected locations including churches and schools.

HOUSING

Students will be staying at the Cittadella residence space especially designed for study abroad programs.
